

PHOTO JOURNAL JUST & EQUAL COMMUNITIES PROJECT

Our Journey From
July 2024 - June 2025

National Cultural Festival

Cultural performers during the Caravan parade

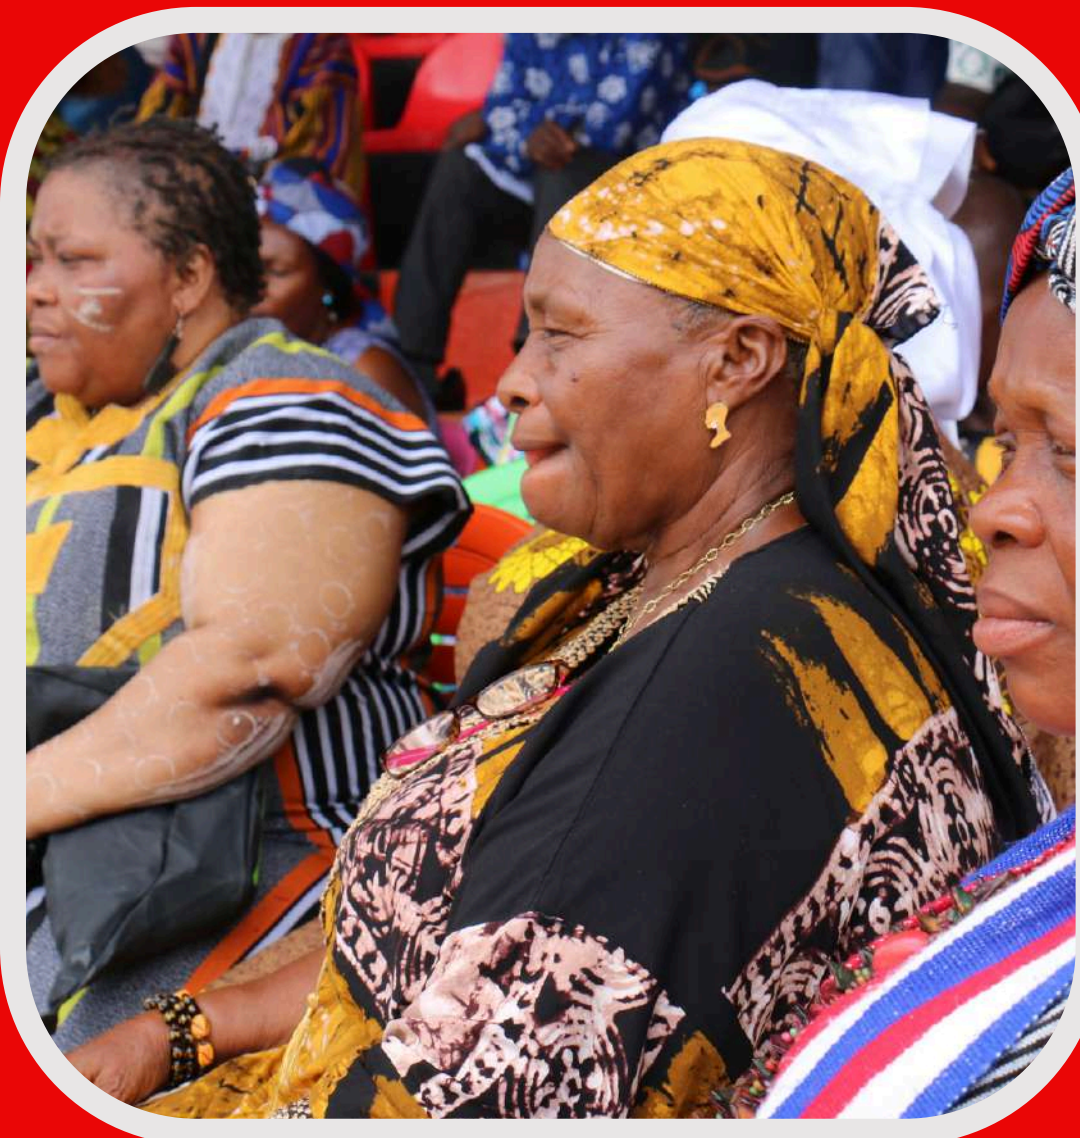

Traditional women leaders participated in the parade

The students community in Bong were fully involved with the festival

MOMENTS TO REMEMBER AT THE FESTIVAL

The Traditional Welcoming Ceremony & audience at the event

THE MAIN CEREMONY

Remarks from partners, traditional, and national leaders

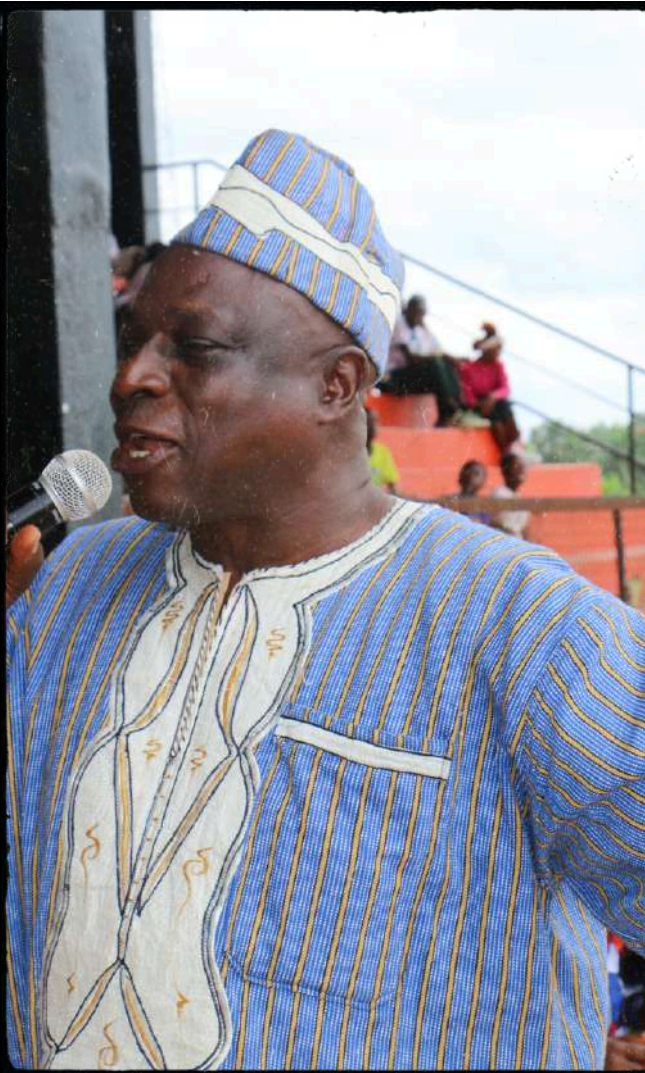

Jubah Jackson introduces the guest speaker

The guest speaker at the 2025 festival

Delphine Morris of MOGCSP

Liberia's Cultural Ambassador in the middle and others made remarks

Powerful traditional women leaders in Liberia graced the occasion

CULTURAL PERFORMACE & SIDE ATTRACTIONS

Menstrual Hygiene Day Celebration 2025

Young Feminist & LIWEN staff after a talk show Truth FM

MHD Listening circles held at schools

Listening circles held at schools led by young feminists

Menstrual Hygiene Day Main Celebration May 28

GIRLS LED THE PERIOD TALKS & STORIES OF CHANGE

MEET FOUR JEC CHANGE

CHAMPIONS

Jartu B. Johnson is the first woman to become the clan chief of Deewar clan

Jumah White Becomes the 1st woman Clan Chief of Zuo Clain

From several school dropout, Ruth Andrews now a prospective high school graduate

Bendora Washington -President of United Girls for Peace and Development -Gobah Town
Has multiply herself, by transforming many other young women as advocates to lead change

Intergenerational dialogue forum on SRHR and FGM held in Zai's Town, Grand Gedeh and Bong County

Change Champions in picture during engagement meetings

Cross-section of VSLA members in establishment training in Margibi and Grand Gedeh and Gbarpolu

SMT Joint Monitoring visits

& Community engagements with CBOs, girls and boys forums

Photos Highlights from the FGM Day Observance & FGM Book Launch

FGM Book Launch and screening of Stories of Change Documentary Film

16 Days of Activism Celebration 2025

Domestic Violence Workshop

National & Local Level Coordination Meetings

